About this range

Ramadan Mubarak and Eid Mubarak bunting is one of the highest-volume seasonal lines: low unit cost, easy to hang, and an instant signal to shoppers that a store has entered the season. We produce paper and felt bunting in several lengths and colourways, plus backdrop panels for photo areas. Hanging ornaments and garlands fill the vertical space that makes a display read as decorated from across a shop — honeycomb balls, paper fans, tassel garlands and hanging motif pieces, all lightweight, which is what keeps carton volume, and therefore freight, down. Best-selling line is 613098. Ramadan wall calendars and countdown pieces hang in the same vertical space and are bought at the start of the month and used daily, which gives them unusually long shelf presence; custom dates and languages are available.

Certifications & compliance

- BSCI
